

Maternal Health: Challenges and Reality for People of Color.

MODERATOR

TIFFANY DONELSON

President and Chief Executive Officer of the Connecticut Health Foundation

Tiffany Donelson brings to her role as President and CEO a deep knowledge of healthcare systems and policy, extensive experience in grantmaking, and a commitment to equity. Tiffany previously served as the foundation's vice president of the program. In this role, she set the foundation's programmatic strategy, which includes grantmaking, strategic communications, policy, the leadership development program, and evaluation.

Before joining the foundation in 2014, Tiffany held several leadership roles at Aetna, including as the deputy chief of staff for Aetna's National Businesses Office and as a director in corporate strategy. Before joining Aetna, Tiffany was a consultant at Ingenix Consulting and Pricewaterhouse Coopers.

Ms. Donelson is a graduate of Georgetown University and received her MPH in health policy and management at Emory University's Rollins School of Public Health.